

The Reflection Essay
Am I done? Not yet!

The eye sees not itself but by reflection--William Shakespeare

Description of the Essay

Now that you have completed your service requirement and forms, it is time to reflect upon your experience. Review the Reflection Essay Rubric for specific expectations. You will write an essay explaining the following:

• Brief description of your project

• Personal Growth

What did you learn about you as a person?

What personal growth did you experience?

• Benefits

What are the benefits of completing your specific project? Who and/or what benefited?

• Conclusion

What are your final thoughts about this experience and what will you take with you as you move forward into your adult life?

DUE DATES: [get these from your English teacher and note them in the space below]

REQUIREMENTS

For Reflection Essay

1. 500 words minimum
2. Must address all parts of the "Description of the Essay" above
3. Must be typed or word processed, Times New Roman 12
4. Must have a title page which identifies the student, date, class, and English instructor
5. Must be properly MLA formatted with one-inch margins, double spacing, and twelve-point standard font

